NEU strikes

The planned strike action dates are Thursday 2nd March and Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th March. I will try to indicate nearer the time which classes will be open and closed but staff do not have to inform me.

Metropolitan Police talk to Yr.5 & 6 parents and workshops for children.

On Tuesday 21st February, the Met. Police will be coming into school to talk to the children in Yr.5 & 6 about Youth Produced Sexual Imagery (YPSI). Many children in this age group have smart phones and whilst they are under the age of all social media apps such as WhatsApp, Snapchat, Tik Tok, Instagram etc. many of them have these apps and make up groups.

The Police would like to meet first with parents from 8.20am - 9 in the KS2 hall and share with you the presentation they will be showing the children and answer any questions you may have. Parents will need to sign permission slips for the children to attend the presentation and I urge you all to attend this presentation and allow your child to do the same. A letter for permission will come out separately next week so please look out for it.

HEST workshops in school

Havering Emotional Support Team (HEST) continue their work to improve our children's understanding of their own mental health by providing strategies to support mental health and well being our children in Yr. 1 will participate in a Best Buddies workshop on 28.02.23. Yr. 5 will build on the work they started in their Brain buddies workshops and some children will continue with Self Esteem and Self Confidence Building. Yr. 3 will start My Emotions workshops at the beginning of the summer term.

#LetGirlsPlay

To promote equal access to football for all, we are going to be participating in this national event. So please could all children wear PE kits to school on Wednesday 8th March.

World Book Day (WBD) celebrations -

On Wednesday 1st March please come to school dressed as your favourite book character.

Also on the 01.03.23 and 03.03.23 KS2 classes will be given the opportunity to take part in activities at Waterstones, Lakeside. all themed around World Book Day. Children will be given a WBD voucher which they could use to purchase one of the WBD titles or they can use to take £1 from a full priced book. Children will be allowed to take their own spending money if you wish them to do so but it will be the child's responsibility to look after it. Letters will follow in due course.
